|--------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
| Alberta      | Support (Convoy) – For provision of equipment and personnel to move approximately 70 semi-tractor trailers and approximately 75 personal and recreational vehicles. | Letter to Min PS and Min EP. received on 5 Feb |

- The demonstrations continued in Ottawa on 5 Feb, with an estimated 10,000 people converging the downtown core (1,000 participating in counter demonstrations).
  - A high police presence remains. Ottawa Police Service hotline will be set up to report crimes, including intimidation and harassment by the protesters. Police has issued 30 tickets.

[APG]

- On 3 Feb, the RCMP approved a request from the City of Ottawa for additional resources to help the Ottawa Police Service, including an increase in officers. OPS has also received additional support from the OPP and seven municipal police services. On 5 Feb, OPS Chief told media that an additional surge of resources was needed to deal with the protests.
- A number of roads and interprovincial bridges remain closed or partially closed in and around the city; citizens are urged to avoid unnecessary travel to the core.
- Tow truck companies are rejecting OPS requests for help.
- A NOTAM has been issued with an airspace restriction over downtown Ottawa – extended to 7 Feb.
- Other protests were held across Canada, in solidarity with those in Ottawa:
  - Toronto:
    - Demonstrators converged in some areas of the downtown core on 5 Feb, including the north side of Queen's Park; the event remained peaceful.
    - Congested streets due to a large volume of trucks and protesters made it difficult for emergency services to pass through.
    - A male, who allegedly had a smoke bomb, was arrested on three charges.
  - Quebec City:
    - Demonstrations took place in the vicinity of the National Assembly Building on 5 Feb; the event remained peaceful.
    - Demonstrators blocked over a kilometre of René-Lévesque Blvd, from de Salaberry to Honoré-Mercier.
  - Winnipeg:
    - Demonstrations took place at the MB Legislative Building on 5 Feb; the event remained peaceful.
    - Overnight on 4 Feb, a lone male driver from Manitoba was arrested after 4 men were struck in a hit and run; no severe or life altering injuries. The accused faces 13 charges and is currently in custody. Winnipeg Police report that the accused was not participating in the protest and his motivation was not specifically about the underlying causes of the protest or the mandates.
  - Regina:
    - Demonstrations took place at the SK Legislative Building on 5 Feb; the event remained peaceful.
  - Coutts, AB (POE):
    - The blockage at Coutts, AB POE, situation has evolved, with two lanes open allowing access to and from the US border. A second blockade approx. 20 km north of Coutts has been organized. Airspace restrictions have been in place over Coutts.
    - An RFA was received from the Province for provision of equipment and personnel to move approximately 70 semi-tractor trailers and approximately 75 personal and recreational vehicles.
  - Vancouver:
    - Demonstrations remained peaceful on 5 Feb. Freedom Convoy was met with counter-protestors – stand off was brief; congested streets in Metro Vancouver, including traffic delays and congestion on routes and bridges.

[APG]

- Mariners for Freedom vessel parade is being planned for across Canada. There is no intent to block shipping lanes or ports; potential to block provincial ferries (NS/NL) to influence provincial governments.
  - MSOC and security partners are aware and continue to monitor. Overall risk assessed as very low.
- As of 30 Jan, Freedom Convoy 2022 has raised over $10.1M in fundraising support. The fundraiser has been paused. As of 5 Feb, media report that GoFundMe will be issuing refunds to all donors. Some protesters have been raising funds through other channels, including requests on social media that transfers be directly sent via e-mail. Nearly $250,000 has been raised through a Christian fundraising service known as GiveSendGo.

IQALUIT WATER SAFETY

- News media reporting calls mount for public inquiry into Iqaluit water crisis. The Government of Nunavut has stated its intent on proceeding with an independent third-party review in conjunction with the City of Iqaluit.
- As of 28 Jan, Nunavut's Health Department has lifted a precautionary boil-water advisory for the City of Iqaluit. The advisory was put in place on 19 Jan when the city started using a bypass system to pump water to residents.
- Nunavut MP Lori Idlout (NDP) is calling for $180M to end the water emergency in Iqaluit, in a letter dated 21 Jan to Infrastructure and Communities Minister Dominic Leblanc. No specifics provided on what the funds would be used for, but Mayor Kenny Bell recently stated that the city needs a new water source and treatment plant.
- Some residents have reported a return fuel smells in water. Although slight levels of hydrocarbons have been detected in the water, these levels are within an acceptable range.
